

An Aramaic to English spiritual interpretation of The Aramaic Lord's Prayer of Yeshua from The Gospels of Matthew and Luke

by DALE ALLEN HOFFMAN ܕܠܐܠܢ ܗܘܦܦܡܢ ܝܫܘܥ

“Our One, Absolute, Eternal Being, of which we are borne forth from the Realm of the All and the Only.

I am empty within the awe of Your Presence and the purity of Your Name

Empower my Creative Beingness through Your expansion from the ever-present Realm

As I realize Our strength and virtue as One

On the manifest earth as in the un-manifest Realm

Provide the nourishment of Your insight and realization through me now and in every present moment

Release my hidden past as I cancel my past concerns with others

Do not let me lose my True Self in forgetfulness, but wholly release me from the errors of my perception

For Thy Realm is the Absolute, the All and the Only

And Our strength of virtue and magnificence

From cosmic gathering to cosmic gathering, From age to age

May these be the rooted earth from which all my actions flow – Ahmeyn”
